“Reed Actuarial have always provided first-rate treatment for our management and company with careful consideration of the role requirements and matching these as closely as possible. The candidates proposed have usually been of a very high standard, so much so that we created an additional investment role to accommodate two outstanding candidates. Our experience with Reed Actuarial could not be improved upon and we continue to have an excellent relationship.”

Paternoster UK Ltd

“We have found Reed Actuarial to be very useful as a source of candidates because of the size of their business, their numerous locations and the fact that they specialise in certain areas. The consultant I have liased with knows her candidates very well and tries hard to meet our requirements. It is always a pleasant experience dealing with her.”
